Elena Walch, Tramin (South Tyrol)

Cabernet Istrice Alto Adige DOC

Vintage	2024
Winemaker	Elena Walch
Region	South Tyrol
Alcohol	13.5% vol.
Grapes	90% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Cabernet Franc

Winemaking

Traditional fermentation over 10 days in the steel tanks, followed by biological acid degradation in wooden barrels. Bottling and long maturing in bottles following 12 months in French barriques.

Our tasting note

The Cabernet Istrice has a gleaming garnet-red colour. A seductively tangy nose with coffee note and a light smoked aroma, refreshingly fruity with wild berries and black berries. The wine has a strong structure, subtle tannins and a fruity-tangy richness. The finish is long and juicy.

Elena Walch

Elena Walch is a leading vineyard in South Tyrol under family proprietorship. Encouraging quality and innovation, Elena Walch stood at the head of the quality revolution in South Tyrol and has gained local and international esteem for her efforts. The great assets of Elena Walch are the two vineyards Vigna Castel Ringberg above Kalterer See, and Vigna Kastelaz above Tramin. All wines bear the clear signature of their producer and delight with their purity of taste, elegance and finesse. Elena Walch, formerly a successful architect, al so understands her current profession brilliantly. Responsibility for the family company has now been placed in the hands of daughters Julia and Karoline Walch, as the fifth generation of the family.
