Winemaking

Clos de la Roche is undoubtedly one of the most coveted vineyards, and every Burgundy winemaker dreams of owning a plot here. Unique wines full of power and elegance, with enormous density and complexity, come from this vineyard, which owes its name to the large rocks (roches) hidden beneath the calcareous soil layer. The aging process occurs with 40% in new barrels and 60% in barrels 1 to 5 years old. After 13 months of aging, the wines are transferred to tanks, rested for 3 months, and bottled without filtration or fining.

Our tasting note

In the glass, a deep purple color. On the nose, a vibrant bouquet of blue fruits, blending with the complex scent of red and black berries. The acidity and tannins are in perfect harmony, giving the wine its classic grainy texture and a wonderful length.

François Feuillet

The François Feuillet estate in Chevannes is the result of the collaboration between two different generations, united by a shared passion for wine: François Feuillet, a prominent French businessman, and David Duband, a young oenologist. François Feuillet fell in love with Burgundy and began purchasing vineyards in the 1990s, focusing on small parcels in the villages of Vosne-Romanée and Nuits-Saint-Georges. In the 1990s, François Feuillet also met oenologist David Duband, who had just completed his studies in oenology in Beaune. The two began a partnership that continues to this day. In 1998, Domaine François Feuillet produced its first Grand Cru Echézeaux, and since then, it has acquired some of the best Grand Cru and Premier Cru vineyards in the region. Today, the estate also includes vineyards in the villages of Gevrey-Chambertin, Chambolle-Musigny, and Morey-Saint-Denis. In winemaking, oenologist David Duband prefers a non-interventionist approach to produce typical, harmonious, and balanced wines that reflect the unique characteristics of each parcel.
