Gaja, Barbaresco (Piedmont)

Grappa Darmagi

Winemaker	Gaja
Region	Piedmont
Alcohol	45% vol.
Grapes	95% Cabernet Sauvignon, 3% Merlot, 2% Cabernet Franc

Winemaking

The Grappa Darmagi is produced from the high-quality grape pomace of Darmagi wine and is exclusively made from grapes from the Darmagi vineyard in the parish of Barbaresco. This noble grappa is distilled in stainless steel tanks.

Our tasting note

The Grappa Darmagi has the aroma of flowers and spices and is intensely full-bodied. A very complex Grappa with a long-lasting finish and perfect harmonious.

Gaja

The Gaja winery was founded by Giovanni Gaja in 1859, the great-grandfather of the current owner Angelo Gaja. Angelo is probably the most famous Italian winery owner internationally. No other winemaker has won the «Tre Bicchieri», the highest award from the Italian wine guide Gambero Rosso, as often as he has. He has been voted the «Man of the Year» by the Decanter and Winespectator magazines several times. The success of his wines is inseparable from his charismatic personality, and his life is a goodwill tour for the family vineyards. Gaja s wines are rooted in tradition, yet keep an eye on modernity. The company is now already in its fifth generation, and is managed by the two daughters Gaia and Rossana and son Giovanni. The Gaja family s vineyards now extend from Tus cany to Sicily. However, the Gajas home remains in the famous wine village of Barbaresco, where their unrivalled success story began.
