WEIBELWEINE

Elena Walch, Tramin (South Tyrol)

Lagrein Riserva DOC

Vintage	2023
Winemaker	Elena Walch
Region	South Tyrol
Alcohol	13.5% vol.
Grapes	100% Lagrein

Winemaking

Fermentation over roughly 10 days with subsequent acid degradation. The wine matures for 20 months in French barriques, before being bottled and aged for a long time in bottles.

Our tasting note

A deep, dark ruby-red colour characterises the Lagrein Riserva Castel Ringberg. Complex, fruity-tangy aromas of red berries and plums, dried figs, including some chocolate and a light smoky note. This fantastic grape demonstrates its quality by means of robust tannins and a distinctive, strong structure in connection with smooth, soft richness. A refined interplay between juiciness and bite and a long- lasting finish.

Elena Walch

Elena Walch is a leading vineyard in South Tyrol under family proprietorship. Encouraging quality and innovation, Elena Walch stood at the head of the quality revolution in South Tyrol and has gained local and international esteem for her efforts. The great assets of Elena Walch are the two vineyards Vigna Castel Ringberg above Kalterer See, and Vigna Kastelaz above Tramin. All wines bear the clear signature of their producer and delight with their purity of taste, elegance and finesse. Elena Walch, formerly a successful architect, al so understands her current profession brilliantly. Responsibility for the family company has now been placed in the hands of daughters Julia and Karoline Walch, as the fifth generation of the family.
