Elena Walch, Tramin (South Tyrol)

Pinot Bianco Alto Adige DOC

Vintage	2025
Winemaker	Elena Walch
Region	South Tyrol
Alcohol	13% vol.
Grapes	100% Pinot Bianco

Winemaking

The grapes are gently pressed following harvest. The fresh juice is statically purified at low temperatures and then fermented at a controlled temperature of 18°C in steel tanks. The young wine matures over several months on its fine yeast in steel tanks.

Our tasting note

The Pinot Bianco has a clear, glowing yellow colour. Its nose has a fruity aroma of fresh apple and a hint of herb. This wine surprises the pallet with elegance, mineral richness, vibrant acidity and a fresh finish.

Elena Walch

Elena Walch is a leading vineyard in South Tyrol under family proprietorship. Encouraging quality and innovation, Elena Walch stood at the head of the quality revolution in South Tyrol and has gained local and international esteem for her efforts. The great assets of Elena Walch are the two vineyards Vigna Castel Ringberg above Kalterer See, and Vigna Kastelaz above Tramin. All wines bear the clear signature of their producer and delight with their purity of taste, elegance and finesse. Elena Walch, formerly a successful architect, al so understands her current profession brilliantly. Responsibility for the family company has now been placed in the hands of daughters Julia and Karoline Walch, as the fifth generation of the family.
