Elena Walch, Tramin (South Tyrol)

Riesling Castel Ringberg DOC

Vintage	2023
Winemaker	Elena Walch
Region	South Tyrol
Alcohol	12.5% vol.
Grapes	100% Riesling

Winemaking

After the gentle pressing and static purification, fermentation takes place at a controlled temperature of roughly 18 °C in steel tanks. Extended yeast contact following fermentation until the wine is bottled.

Our tasting note

The Riesling Castel Ringberg has a bright and fresh straw- yellow colour. Aromas of white peach, a hint of citrus fruits, fresh herbs and mineral notes dominate the bouquet. An exciting freshness unfolds on the pallet, combining mineral structure, delicate elegance and a fresh finish.

Elena Walch

Elena Walch is a leading vineyard in South Tyrol under family proprietorship. Encouraging quality and innovation, Elena Walch stood at the head of the quality revolution in South Tyrol and has gained local and international esteem for her efforts. The great assets of Elena Walch are the two vineyards Vigna Castel Ringberg above Kalterer See, and Vigna Kastelaz above Tramin. All wines bear the clear signature of their producer and delight with their purity of taste, elegance and finesse. Elena Walch, formerly a successful architect, al so understands her current profession brilliantly. Responsibility for the family company has now been placed in the hands of daughters Julia and Karoline Walch, as the fifth generation of the family.
